

I'm the queen mama
It's all being birthed from me,
That's right!

Flowing in tendrils down my long body
Calm and centered at heart
Present.
Grounded at earth center.
Graceful, peaceful Overflowing
With goodness, radiant sunshine, peaceful words
Non-judgement, right & just action
Breath and being as the highest calling
My dress is made of these things,
It is long and flowing
From Oregon to California ornate green, grey swirls of goodwill, love, kind intention
From my heart and home in Portland
Earth center residing in the fertile soils of southern Oregon
to the fruition, the abundance, the giving flowing freely beyond what money can buy beyond these concepts that cause greed and selfish suffering
I will never stoop so low.

I rise
Stand Tall
On solid ground of conviction
That love rules all.
Back in the flow of mind and body
It feels so good to be home.
Breathing into the softness of my being Allowing myself to be at home in ME.
Giving myself permission to breath in Me.
To love me. So I can love you Without judgement.

I want to breathe softness into my being Bones, earth, eyes, sky
Forever and ever
With you by my side
Kindred angel
Ornate spirit
