

I Can Hear the Birds Sing

I can hear birds sing
Let the love ring
I can hear the rainfall
I can hear the door creak
I can feel the earth rise
I can feel the sunshine
I can feel the heart ache
I can feel you love make

In a milkshake
Or a moonbake
In a love stance
Right in your hands
Sliver of a moonbeam
Hung up by a shoestring

Like a shadow
Fading softly
Let me
Stand on your porch
Under the treelight
In the moonlight
A light airy sunstream
And I can hear birds sing
